ITEM 4. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES.

Not applicable

ITEM 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL.

Not applicable.

ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") permits a Delaware corporation to include a provision in its Certificate of Incorporation, and the Company's Certificate of Incorporation so provides, which eliminates or limits the personal liability of a director to a corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that such provision may not eliminate or limit the liability of a director: (i) for any such of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith, or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) under Section 174 of the DGCL, which makes directors personally liable for unlawful dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions; or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit.

Under the DGCL, the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and the Company's Bylaws, directors and officers may be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation (a "derivative action")) if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Company and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. In derivative actions, indemnification extends only to expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with defense or settlement of such an action and, in the event such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation, only to the extent that a proper court shall have determined that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses.

The Company's officers and directors are also insured against claims arising out of the performance of their duties in the aforementioned capacities.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) of the Securities Act if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

AMR Corporation
Attention: Charles D. MarLett, Esq.
PO Box 619616
M/D 5675-HDQ
D/FW Airport, Texas 75261-9616

Dear Mr. MarLett:

In connection with the Registration Statement on Form S-8 (the "Registration Statement") to be filed by AMR Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, we are passing upon the qualification of Super Saver, A 401(k) Capital Accumulation Plan for Employees of Participating AMR Corporation Subsidiaries (the "Plan") under section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (the "Code") and the exempt status of the trust fund maintained pursuant to the Plan under section 501(a) of the Code. At your request, we are furnishing this opinion to you for filing as Exhibit 5.1 to the Registration Statement. In our capacity as your counsel for purposes of rendering this opinion, we have examined the Plan and all amendments thereto, and such additional materials relevant to the Plan as we have deemed appropriate, including determination letters and compliance Statements issued by the Internal Revenue Service in connection with the qualification of the Plan and the exempt status of the Trust Fund maintained pursuant to the Plan.

We have assumed that all signatures on all documents examined by us are genuine, that all documents submitted to us as originals are accurate and complete, and that all documents submitted to us as copies are true and correct copies of the originals thereof, and that all information submitted to us was accurate and complete.

Amendments to the Plan have been prepared in order to cause the Plan to comply with legislation enacted subsequently to the submission of the latest request for a determination letter to the Internal Revenue Service, and legislation enacted prior to the that date but not effective as of the date of the latest Internal Revenue Service determination letter. The amendments have not yet been executed. Additionally, in connection with the acquisition of certain assets of Trans World Airlines, Inc. by American Airlines, Inc., certain other amendments to the Plan have been prepared but have not yet been executed. The opinion rendered below assumes that such amendments will be executed in the form in which they exist as of the date hereof, and that the Plan, as so amended, will be the subject of a submission to the Internal Revenue Service, requesting a determination letter as to the qualification of the Plan, as so amended, on or before December 31, 2001. For purposes of rendering the opinion below, we are also assuming that, in connection with such request for a determination letter, the Company will execute such additional amendments as shall be required by the Internal Revenue Service in order to maintain continued qualification of the Plan.

Subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that the Plan is qualified under section 401(a) of the Code and that the Trust Fund maintained in connection with the Plan is exempt from taxation under section 501(a) of the Code.

This opinion is also subject to the assumption that the Plan as operated complies with section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. We do not opine as to the qualification of the Plan in operation, but note that the Plan is required to be operated in accordance with its terms by the express provisions of the Plan, the Code, and under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended. While we do not opine as to the qualification of the Plan in operation, we note that this Firm regularly serves as counsel to the Company in connection with the Plan, and can advise you that nothing has come to our attention that would suggest that the Plan, in operation, is not in compliance with section 401(a) of the Code.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an exhibit to the Registration Statement. In giving such consent, we do not admit that we are within the category of persons who consent is required under section 7 of the Act or the Rules and Regulations of the Commission thereunder.

Very truly yours,
