» Emergency Preparedness is Always Key

Disaster can strike anywhere, at any time, often without warning. Whether you're evacuating from a Category 5 hurricane or the electricity went off in the dead of winter, it's essential that every household has a stocked and readily available emergency kit, according to the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). It's no fun to be searching around in the dark for a flashlight, or waiting until the last minute to see if that storm was really going to come your way, before you have everything you need to weather it. So think ahead, plan well and gather your supplies before you think you'll need them. Read this week's message from Len Bradley, M&E Base Safety Manager, on classic Jetnet's Employee Safety page.

» One Week Left to Take the Arrivals Survey

Have you taken the Arrivals newsletter survey yet? There's just one week left, so if you haven't, please take a moment and fill it out today. Your answers to the survey will help us better communicate with everyone at American – tell us when, where and how you want your company news delivered, and what content you'd like us to continue featuring. Your opinion is important, and we appreciate your time.

» oneworld Holds Five “Best Alliance” Titles with Latest Skytrax Award

oneworld has been named the World's Best Airline Alliance in the 2013 World Airline Awards, presented by the independent Skytrax airline quality ratings agency. It means oneworld is now the current holder of five of the leading “best airline alliance” titles:

- Global Traveler's Best Airline Alliance in its GT Tested Reader Survey 2012 Awards
- World Travel Awards' World's Leading Airline Alliance 2012
- Australian Business Traveller's Best Airline Alliance 2012
- FlightStats Airline Alliance On-Time Performance 2012 winner – believed to have been the first time a punctuality award has been presented to any global airline alliance oneworld member airlines also flew high in the Skytrax 2013 World Airline Awards, which are based on the results of an independent survey of some 18 million travelers from more than 160 countries, in what Skytrax describes as the only truly global, independent passenger survey of airline standards. Finnair Opens Routes to Xi'an and Hanoi

Finnair has begun flying to Hanoi, Vietnam, and Xi'an, China, further sharpening the airline's strategic focus on transfer traffic between Asia and Europe. Currently the only European carrier offering nonstop connections between the two cities and Europe, Finnair also offers fast and efficient transfers to more than 60 European destinations via its Helsinki hub. The oneworld carrier will operate service to both cities three times a week throughout the summer schedule season, until Oct. 26 for Xi'an and Oct. 27 for Hanoi. Finnair has gradually built on its Asian strategy during the past two decades, taking advantage of the geographical position of its Helsinki hub on the shortest routes between the great cities of Asia and more than 60 European destinations. In addition to Xi'an and Hanoi, Finnair operates to Bangkok, Beijing, Chongqing, Delhi, Hong Kong, Nagoya, Osaka, Seoul, Shanghai, Singapore and Tokyo.

Boeing Launches 787-10 with $30 Billion of Orders

Boeing launched the 787-10 version of its flagship Dreamliner aircraft at the Paris Airshow Tuesday (Paris time) with 102 firm orders worth nearly $30 billion at list prices. The buyers are Air Lease with 30 planes, GE Capital Services with 10, British Airways with 12, Singapore Airlines with 30 and United with 20. United's order includes 10 new planes and 10 conversions from the earlier 787-9 model, due for first flight later this year. The third variant of the Dreamliner family will have a range of 7,000 nautical miles, with seating for up to 330 passengers. United said it expected to receive its first 787-10 in 2018.

Delta Says Cincinnati Service Safe after Memphis Cuts

Delta said it's maintaining the same presence in Cincinnati after announcing plans to scale back in Memphis. "The Cincinnati hub is doing quite well," said Delta CEO Richard Anderson. "We feel really good about where our service levels are there, and beyond what we've announced in Memphis, we don't have any significant network changes planned." Delta is retiring inefficient 50-seat jets from the smallest of its eight hubs. With rising jet-fuel prices, these planes have become too expensive to operate, leading to a June 4 decision to trim flights in Memphis by more than a third.

Closing Fuel Prices for Monday, June 17

Crude oil was $97.77 a barrel, down $0.08 from the previous day.

Jet fuel price was $118.68 a barrel, down $0.92.

Merger Q&A

Q. Will any major hubs be affected as a result of the merger?

A. We expect to maintain all hubs now served by both airlines and offer increased service to existing markets, providing more choices for our customers and more opportunity for our people. As the new carrier, we will have more than 6,700 daily flights to 336 destinations in 56 countries across the globe.
