Item 5. Other Events

On January 8, 1997, the members of the Allied Pilots Association ("APA" -- the union that represents pilots at American Airlines, Inc. ("American")) rejected the tentative agreement that had been reached between American and the APA. American is the principal subsidiary of AMR Corporation (the "Corporation"). On January 10, 1997, the National Mediation Board ("NMB") proffered binding arbitration to the APA and American. American agreed to arbitration but because the APA did not also agree, the proffer was rejected. On January 15, 1997, the APA and American were notified (i) that the NMB was terminating its services and (ii) that beginning February 15, 1997, either party could resort to self-help remedies which include, but are not limited to, a strike by the members of the APA. Although it is not possible to predict what actions the APA may take after February 15, 1997, any work stoppage by the pilots' union would have a material adverse impact on the Corporation.
