AMR REPORTS FOURTH QUARTER EARNINGS OF $182 MILLION

1998 EARNINGS OF $1.3 BILLION AN ALL-TIME RECORD

FOR RELEASE: Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1999

FORT WORTH, Texas -- AMR Corporation, parent company of American Airlines Inc., today reported fourth quarter net earnings of $182 million ($1.09 per common share diluted) after a special item for the fourth quarter, as compared to $208 million ($1.16 per common share diluted, adjusted for last year's 2-for-1 stock split) after special items in the same period in 1997.

Excluding a special item totaling $15 million after taxes, AMR reported fourth quarter earnings of $167 million ($1.00 per common share diluted). This compares with net earnings of $195 million ($1.09 per common share diluted and adjusted for the stock split), excluding certain special items, during the same period in 1997.

AMR's fourth quarter results brought the company's full-year 1998 net earnings to a record $1.3 billion ($7.52 per common share diluted), including the special item. This compares with net earnings including special items of $985 million ($5.39 per common share diluted and adjusted for the stock split) in 1997.

"As the numbers clearly demonstrate, we had an outstanding year in 1998, thanks in large part to the hard work of our employees, management's dedicated focus on the airline and related technology businesses, and very favorable external factors such as the strong domestic economy and lower fuel prices," said Donald J. Carty, AMR's Chairman and CEO. "We've worked hard to build shareholder value for our investors, and our great performance last year will mean another record pay-out this March for American's employee profit sharing plans."

Carty added that although 1998 was an excellent year, AMR's fourth quarter earnings were down year-over-year, largely due to decreased yields, especially in international markets.

"We are cautiously optimistic about 1999, as we carefully monitor the balance of supply and demand in the marketplace and continue our cost-containment initiatives," Carty said. "However, there's no question that 1999 will be a very good year for American's customers as we take delivery of 45 new Boeing aircraft and 31 regional jets, upgrade airport facilities, refurbish aircraft interiors, continue network expansion, and enhance passenger service."

Among AMR's fourth quarter highlights:

- AA announced and completed the tender offer for Reno Air and American Eagle announced it would buy Business Express to strengthen the overall network and boost presence in the western U.S. and New England.
- o AA welcomed Finnair to the oneworld alliance.
- o AA announced a frequent flyer plan partnership with Alaska Airlines and Horizon Air.
- AA reduced slightly its 1999 growth plan to reflect changing global economic conditions, through increased aircraft retirements and deferred international service. The additional aircraft retirements should save an estimated $40 million in associated maintenance costs during the next three years. Sixteen 727-200, DC-10-10 and MD-11 aircraft will leave the fleet in 1999.
- AMR announced sales agreements for three non-airline businesses -- AMR Services, AMR Combs and TeleService Resources (TSR) -- to better focus on core airline and related technology businesses.
- AA announced the launch of Nexos, a new Latin inflight magazine as part of the airline's overall $11.5-million initiative to improve service for Latin customers. The airline also observed the 10th anniversary of its Latin Desk, celebrating a decade of reservations services to Spanish-speaking customers.
- o AA introduced voice recognition technology to its automated flight information system.
- AA launched new DFW-Osaka service and announced new Los Angles-Paris (Orly) service, starting June 1.
- o AMR completed Aerolineas Argentinas and Austral equity transactions.
- American Eagle began new regional jet service to Abilene, Texas; Houston (Hobby); Montgomery, Ala.; the new Northwest Arkansas Regional Airport; and between Columbus, Ohio and Miami. The regional airline also announced new jet service to Long Island-Islip (MacArthur), N.Y.; Jackson, Miss.; Memphis, Tenn.; and Peoria, Ill.
