AMR CORPORATION REPORTS RECORD PASSENGER UNIT REVENUE

Consolidated Traffic Increased 2.5 Percent

FORT WORTH, Texas - AMR Corporation today reported July 2013 consolidated revenue and traffic results for its principal subsidiary, American Airlines, Inc., and its wholly owned subsidiary, AMR Eagle Holding Corporation.

July's consolidated passenger revenue per available seat mile (PRASM) increased an estimated 4.0 percent versus last year, to an all-time record high for any month of 14.61 cents/ASM.

Consolidated capacity and traffic were 2.6 percent and 2.5 percent higher year-over-year, respectively, resulting in a consolidated load factor of 86.9 percent, 0.1 points lower versus the same period last year.

Domestic traffic was 0.3 percent higher year-over-year on 0.2 percent less capacity, resulting in a domestic load factor of 88.7 percent, 0.5 points higher compared to the same period last year.

International load factor of 86.4 percent was 0.7 points lower year-over-year, as traffic increased 5.4 percent on 6.2 percent more capacity.

On a consolidated basis, the company boarded 10 million passengers in July.

The Company's Results Are Detailed Below:

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements may be identified by words such as “may,” “will,” “expect,” “intend,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “plan,” “project,” “could,” “should,” “would,” “continue,” “seek,” “target,” “guidance,” “outlook,” “forecast” and other similar words. These forward-looking statements are based on AMR’s and US Airways’ current objectives, beliefs and expectations, and they are subject to significant risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results and financial position and timing of certain events to differ materially from the information in the forward-looking statements. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results and financial position and timing of certain events to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements: the challenges and costs of the proposed transaction, including integrating operations and achieving anticipated synergies; the price of, market for and potential market price volatility of common stock of the ultimate parent entity following the closing of the proposed transaction; significant liquidity requirements and substantial levels of indebtedness of the combined company following the closing; potential limitations on the use of certain tax attributes following the closing; failure of the proposed transaction to be completed; and other economic, business, competitive, and/or regulatory factors affecting the business of the combined company after the closing and the businesses of US Airways and AMR generally, including those set forth in the filings of US Airways and AMR with the SEC, especially in the “Risk Factors” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” sections of their respective annual reports on Form 10-K and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, their current reports on Form 8-K and other SEC filings, including the registration statement and the proxy statement/prospectus related to the proposed transaction. Any forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof or as of the dates indicated in the statements. Neither AMR nor US Airways assumes any obligation to publicly update or supplement any forward-looking statement to reflect actual results, changes in assumptions or changes in other factors affecting these forward-looking statements except as required by law.
